and, after the arrival of a searchlight, a quantity of the explosive was placed against the lower wall of the villa. At against the lower wall of the villa. At the concussion more debris was hurled

When the police arrived at the villa. which was known as the Moulin Rouge M. Guichard, Superintendent of Datectives, carrying the tricolor sash of his office, cried out, "Open in the name of the law!" A man hidden in the garden responded with revolver fire. This formally be gan the battle and siege.

M. Guichard was not hit, and retreated. He mobilized the detectives. police and gendarmes, who carried rifles while a company of zonaves from the nearby barracks joined the besieging Government's Troops Pressing Protected by Steel Sheets.

Six inspectors, protected by sheets of ly approached the house. They encountered a murderous fire, but were police and spectators who had gathered on the viaduct of the Eastern Railroad heaved enormous rocks on to the roof President Madero, who each hold the of the house, which stood adjacent to rank of colonel in the federal army, are the viaduct. Soon the roof was wrecked with General Huerta. Early in the day and fell in, but the bandits continued reports emanating from the rebel head firing. The woman, Vulliemin, emerged quarters at Jiminez, seventy-seven miles from the house. She was arrested.

When M. Lépine, the Prefect of Po- had been taken prisoner when the rebels lice, arrived he immediately assumed entered Mapimi last Sunday. command and the scene took on all the aspect of a battlefield, with reinforcements constantly coming in. M. Lépine It still is held by the government. held a council with the captains of the gendarmes and the Zouaves, and finally decided, as he did in the case of Bonnot and Dubois at Choisy-le-Rol, to blow up the bandits' lair.

The Zouave bugler sounded "cease firing" and then "retreat." The crowds ow almost overwhelming and the from mouth to mouth among the crowds | headquarters here to-day. in the nearby streets, which were jammed by jostling and excited people, that the villa was about to be blown up. | day

Soon the roar of an explosion broke the silence and masses of people rushed forward and tried to force their way through the police lines to see the result. Inspectors and artillery lieutenants had duct. The explosion was so great that it shook the entire town, but when the snoke and the dust from the wreckage cleared away the sharo crack of rifles from the interior of the building showed that they had failed to accomplish their the federal fo purpose. The zouaves and gendarmes answered the fire

Lepine's Narrow Escape.

When the bandits resumed the aggressive M. Lépine himself had a narrow escape from death. Although some distance from the villa a bullet passed within an inch of his shoulder and buried itself in the wall of a house, sending up a shower of fragments into the prefect's face. The crowds, forced back further and further, lost patience and hand of rebeis at Des Cubridora, Durango. vented their feelings in a wild chorus of Death to the bandits!"

The arival of a brigade of reserve police gave the crowds a chance to cheer. It was evident after the explosion that the bandits had taken refuge in the celfrom which they directed a steady fusil-The besiegers anxiously asked themwhen would it end.

Train from Paris conveying the working people to their homes passed slowly over the bridge, affording thousands a view of the fight.

electric searchlights from Paris, as there was great danger in the obscurity of As a matter of fact, the captain of the gendarmes and several soldiers had a lucky escape, their heads being grazed by bullets fired by civilian BODY TO BE BROUGHT BACK understood, will not be made. members of the attacking party, who erdor was greater than their skill and dynamite bombs and cartridges from the military barracks at Vincennes. Several detectives armed with a new type of steel shield which the police arsenals the Coroner for to-morrow at Weybridge. within afteen feet of the house. Holding balmed and conveyed to the United States | 1berville parishes to-day, and are gradurecently devised, were able to approach The body of Victor Mason is to be emthe shield with the left arm and crouched immediately after the inquest. behind it they fired. One shield was pierced, but the detective was not wounded. Sergeant Fleury, who was dangerously wounded earlier in the battle while England yesterday, shipped to Passaic projected by a steel sheet, owed his infury to the fact that he turned to explain the to a comrade how well his armor was Saturday, owing chiefly to red tape in conworking, thus exporing his body.

Dynamite Bombs Sent For.

However, another bomb was expleded, followed by the clatter of broken windows and crumbling walls. But the bandows and crumbling walls. But the ban-dits seemed really possessed of the fabled B. Meyer. Mr. Mason's associate in Loncharmed life. Despite the fact that the don, to have the body embalmed and shipped lington to-morrow, the day before the state villa was cracked and badly damaged, it to-morrow, if possible, no details have been remained standing, and a seemingly in- completed. exhaustible hall of lead continued to peur from within. A Zouave asked permission to place a cartridge alongside the wall of the houss. Panama's President To Be Elect. instead of throwing it, as was previously done. But this was refused, as it undoubtedly would have resulted fatally to the daring soldier. The Zouave then climbed to the attic of an adjacent through the damaged roof of the Moulin elections, Lieutenant Colonel Rouge, but without result.

The firing ceased for a time, the bandits either being exhausted or saving their ammunition, while the soldiers were forced to discontinue pending the arrival of a new stock of cartridges from

At 11:25 o'clock two more dynamits cartridges were exploded, and a portion of one of the walls toppled over. Nevertheless, the bandits apparently succeeded in finding shelter in what remained of

The explosion left a yawning opening in the villa, through which police dogs, with savage barks, sprang, while the police and troops sent volley after volley of shots into the ruins of the building.

Unhappily, some of the bullets ricochetted from the bricks, while others emerged on the opposite side, the result of which was that two policemen were wounded. Then, an armed force, holding torches, rushed into the ruins and dis covered the two bandits lying in a room. few tattered rags. He appeared to be she was in charge of a pilot licensed by dead. Vallet was dead or dying.

The crowd of spectators, now wildly enraged, rushed up and tried to seize the bandits. With great difficulty the police drove them back. The automobiles then balked, and efforts were again made by the mob to tear the desperadoes from the troops. Hundreds surrounded the Prefeet of Police, and, with cries of "Vice Lépine!" tried to carry him off in tri-

MAPIMI, FEDERAL FORT

Madero Denies Both Loss of Bermejillo Outpost and Capture of His Brother.

HUERTA ORDERS ADVANCE

On to Where Orozco's Forces Are Concentrating, Arrive at Yermo.

approached the house. They enntered a murderous fire, but were wounded. Three of the police, howago General Orozco's headquarters, was ever, fell from the bandits' bullets, serf- to-day reached by General Huerta and ously wounded. In the mean time the his advancing federals, who came northward from Conejos.

Raoul and Emilio Madero.

troops are in excellent spirits."

The main body of federals expected to leave here at daybreak.

Jiminez, Mexico, May 14. - Mapimi, the severest measures were necessary to fortified outpost of Bermejillo, fell into like to have the Rev. Mr. Johnson call nem back beyond the danger line. the hands of the rebel forces at approxi- on him, but he wished also to have the With the piercing notes of the bugle the mately the same hour the rebels were of the surging multitude retreating north of Conejos, according to asked if there was any Baptist clergyman was suddenly hushed. Word was passed reports received at General Orozco's

The rebel army to-day occupies pracilcally the same position as it did yester-

El Paso, Tex., May 14.-General Huerta. headquarters at Conejos, recently abandoned by the rebels, to-day ordered an advance on the main body of the Orozco These points are about 400 miles south of the prison in the condition we did to-day. the American border, on the Mexican Cen- He surely would have broken down if the federal forces would press forward to for he would have known then that all up the decisive advantage gained in the fighting on Sunday and that a battle be expected early to-morrow. The which to recover themselves from the dethrough the superiority of his artillery, and that Orozco was confident of holding the placing before it the petition of Richepositions now occupied by his men in the hills of Rellano.

Colonel Ciesar Caneles, commanding a elegraphed to Ciudad Juarez to-day that he rebels in capturing Mapimi had made a prisoner of Raoul Madero, brother of the President and commander of rurales in Breaks in Louisiana Dikes May that district.

Alberto Madero, uncle of Raoul, however, denied to-day that the latter had been at the scene was dramatic in the extreme. graduate of the Michigan School of Mines.

Laredo, Tex., May 14.-Private telegr received here say that federal General Tel. of New Orleans. Soon after the break leg while executing a flank movement at 8 o'clock to-night, the gap was renorth of Conejos yesterday captured a ported as having widened to sixty feet. At 10:15 o'clock M. Lépine ordered freight train loaded with ammunition and of lez unexpectedly came upon the moving crib, after about $2,000,000 damage had slegers accidentally shooting their train, halted it, seized the guard, learned bodies of Victor Louis Mason, of Passaic, beds in the Breton Sound inlets. . J., and E. V. Fisher, the English aviat Brooklands vesterday, has been fixed by Although attempts were made by cable to-day to have the body of Victor Louis Mason, killed in an aeroplane accident in N. J., to-morrow it is almost certain that departure cannot be arranged before nection with the inquest. This means that the funeral will be held from the Mason home at Passaic about May 28. rangements have yet been made for the U. S. AS ELECTION OFFICER ditions. ed Under Our Auspices.

Funeral of Victor L. Mason To Be Held in Passaic, N. J.

Panama, May 14.-The Government and he Opposition lenders were officially notified this afternoon by the American Minister, H. Percival Dodge, that as all the house, which had been vacated, like political parties have requested the United others near by, and fired a dozen shots States to supervise the next Presidential hief engineer, the American Minister and Colonel H. A. Greene, commander of the He Has Big Lead Over Taft and La of judicial decisions. Among other things zone forces, have been appointed a com mission to decide in what manner such pervision may best be effected.

The preminent members of all the political parties will hold a meeting at the egation to give this subject their full consideration.

THE ARCADIAN REFLOATED

Wrecking Steamer at Colon Turns Its Attention to the Metapan.

Colon, May 14.-The wrecking steamer Premier floated the Arcadian off Salmadina Bank to-day. The Arcadian has continued her voyage to England.

The Premier is now engaged in trying to float off the United Fruit Company's steamer Metapan, which grounded going to the Arcadian's assistance

The Royal Mail Steam Packet Company's steamer Arcadian went ashore in the shift ing mudbanks at the entrance of the hartor of Cartagena on May 9. No blame is Garnier was entirely naked save for a attached to the officers of the vessel, as the Colombian government at the time

CLARK CARRIES NEVADA. Reno, Nev., May 14.-Early reports indicate the Democratic Presidential preference vote in to-day's Nevada primaries is for Chamo Clark. Wardoe, Storey, Elko and Humboldt countles give heavy majorities for Clark. White Pine County almos entirely is committed to Wilson, the n Ely standing 131 for Wilson to 4 for he one nearest the electric chair. The hamber is lighted by electricity and the prisoner is always under the eye of tw guards who form the death watch.

THE DEATH CHAMBER

After Richeson had been clothed as visited by Warden Bridges, who told im what privileges he might expecamong them being the right to orde

Immediately after the warden left the Rev. Herbert W. Stebbins, the prison chaplain, a Congregational minister, and William Morse, counsel for the prisoner were admitted to the cell. They retend elemency and that Richeson himself was not without hope.

The prisoner asked for toast and eggs for his supper, which he are soon after reaching the prison. He was told there were also strawberries, if he cared for them, but he declined. A cup of tea folwed the toast.

Uncertain About Minister.

Some uncertainty existed to-night as o what minister will officially attend the former Baptist clergymen. A Baptist clergyman of Cambridge, where Riche phoned the prison to-night and claimed the right to attend him.

It had been understood that the Rev Herbert S. Johnson, of the Warren Ave. me Baptist Church, who frequently visited Richeson in the jail, was preferred by the prisoner. To settle the point the warden made a special visit to Riche son's cell early in the evening.

prison chaplain, Mr. Stebbins, He was in Cambridge he would prefer, and he said there was none.

Sheriff Quinn, who has had charge of Richeson in the Charles street jail, said

"I am the most relieved man in the compelled to keep this man in the jail for another twenty-four hours I don't he had found himself being moved after Advices from Huerta's camp were that the meeting of the Governor's Council, hope for him was over.

Through to weeks alienists have been examining the prisoner as to his sanity. The Governor's Council will meet tofeat administered by Huerta's command morrow and will probably learn at that time whether the Governor considers the ast reports from rebel headquarters were reports of the alienists warrant him in son for commutation of sentence. The reports of the experts are expected to be filed early to-morrow.

FLOODS SMASH LEVEES

Bring New Disaster.

New Orleans, May 14.-Two new lar. They then mounted to the attic, Mapimi in the last few days, Raoul, he breaks in the Mississippi River levees said, is with General Huerta at Conejos. are reported to have occurred to-day in rom which they directed a steady fusilist and a steady fusilist an

At Hymelia in 1903 occurred a crevasse provisions and consigned to the rebels. Tel- which cost the government $218,000 to been done to the rich farming lands then, as now, in the path of the water. Efforts to tie the break this time, it is

The second breach is reported from Nestor, about fifty-five miles below New Orleans. Water from this, however, can London, May 14.—The inquest on the do little damage, except to the oyster Falling stages were recorded from ator, who were killed while making a flight Cairo to New Orleans to-day. Waters the tariff upon workmen, with a view t from the Torras crevasse rose six inches in the West Baton Rouge and Upper ally encroaching upon lands around

IOWA LEAGUE BOOMS BRYAN

Democrats Say He Is Anxious to Ac cept the Nomination.

Des Moines, May 14.-Declaring that Colonel Roosevelt has "stolen 'political old clothes' which William J. Bryan has used for years and, disguised in these, seems to Dayton and several other places. likely to Stampede his party." the lowa Bryan League issued a call to-day for a mass meeting of Bryan Democrats in Bur convention. The call asserts Bryan "is villing and anxious to accept the nomination if it is offered him under the right con loclared to-day that he had, as late as yesterday, requested officers of the lowa-Bryan League not to start any movement

"If I can learn who issued the call to day I will wire him to the same effect,"

WILL INSTRUCT FOR COLONEL

Follette in Minnesota.

St. Paul, May 14.-Minnesota's twentydelegates at large by the state convention fifty and fifty-five years ago.

As for the allegation that I stir up class As for the shegation that I she haired I can only answer that the tional Convention at Baltimore will proceed justice.

PORTO RICO FAVORS WILSON

Do Not Delay-Use This Coupon To-day

Each Section, 10 Cents at Tribune Office, 154 Nassau St., o. 1364 Broadway, or 263 West 125th St. (14 Cents by Mail). Address all mail orders to

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE 154 Nassau St., New York

Specify what section is wanted and send coupon with order. SECTIONS ONE AND TWO ARE NOW READY.

COLONEL HOT ON TRAIL

on was preaching when arrested, tele- He Denies Right of President to world, now that this thing is over, so keep up with his schedule. This called for ommander of the federal troops, with far as I am concerned. If we had been thirteen speeches, and he made several

Says Taft Has Changed

Colonel Roosevelt went on to say that the "bosses" who were against Mr. Tart four years ago had not changed, but that I it was Mr. Taft who had changed. In another speech he said

I stand by all my administration did-tand by it, and if I am again elect-resident I shall try to administer the go

Colonel Roosevelt referred repeatedly to returns gets into pay envelopes.

In Niles Colonel Recesevelt said: I am giad to speak here, near the birth-place of William McKinley. I wish to see some tariff made along the lines that Mc Kinley, the greatest exponent of the pro-ective tariff in our history, would have

The colonel predicted his victory consilently. He said the fight for the nomination could be won without Ohio, but be wished to see this state share in the vic-

After speaking here Colonel Roesevelt left for Cleveland, and to-morrow he will go Hits Lorimer and McKinley.

In his speech here to-night Colone Roosevelt referred to Senator Lorimer, of Illinois, as "Mr. Taft's lieutenant. He strongly criticised Representative William B. McKinley, manager of the President's campaign, for referring, according to the colonel, to the men who opposed President Taft in the Maryland campaign as "the rabble of the cities."

From the writings and public addresses of more liberally than at any time previously He asserted that the Progressive Republi-Lincoln. He reiterated many of the declarations made in his speech before the Ohio Constitutional Convention in Columbus, and defended his course in advocating the recall he said:

We who stand for real progress within St. Paul. May 14.—Minnesota's twentyfour delegates to the Republican National Convention probably will be instructed for Theodore Roosevelt, complete returns from yesterday's county conventions assuring this. With the election of six suring this, With the election of six made of Lincoln and Lincoln's companion fifty and fifty-five years ago.

tion will be complete.

Hope of the La Follette forces that the Wisconsin man would carry the 9th District was wrecked when Polk County went to the colonel, turning the tide there. The state convention will be divided thus. Roosevelt, 876; Taft, 75; La Follette, 164.

PORTO RICO FAVORS WILSON

harred I can only answer that there is not a class in this country against whom I was to-day. The court decided against the knit-except the class of crooks, big crooks and little except the class of crooks district except the class of crooks d crooks. Against all these I do preach war I do try to excite discontent with them, and I shall never cease my efforts until they in their turn either cease being crooked or are deprived of their power to do damage. I insist that we who stand for the principles of Progressive Republicanism, and who therefore stand for making the principles of Abraham Lincoln living principles applied to the living issues of to-day, are fixed in the case of the state of the case of the state of the state. Chief Judge Cullen and Judge Collin dissented. "We think," says Judge Haight, who wrote the majority opinion, "that the lands for canal purposes could not be taken by the engineer until the canal lands had been located by the canal board and the plans of the capal Board or the Superintendent of Public Works.

Entire Delegation to Baltimore Is Instructed for the Governor.

San Juan, Porto Rico, May 14.—The six delegates elected by the Democratic territorial convention to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore will proceed to compel the people to compel the people to render justice. On the contrary, I believe the Constitution was conceived to compel the people to render justice. On the contrary, I believe the Constitution was conceived to compel the people to render justice. On the contrary, I believe the Constitution was conceived to compel the people to render justice. On the contrary, I believe the Constitution was conceived to compel the people to render justice. On the contrary, I believe the Constitution was conceived to compel the people to render justice. On the contrary, I believe the Constitution was conceived to compel the people to render justice. On the contrary, I believe the Constitution was conceived to compel the people to render justice. On the contrary, I believe the Constitution was conceived to compel the people to render justice. On the contrary, I believe the Constitution was conceived to compel the people to render justice. On the contrary, I believe the Constitution was conceived to compel the people to render justice. On the contrary, I believe the Constitution was conceived to compel the people to render justice.

On the contrary, I believe the Con tional Convention at Baltimore will proceed to the United States as soon as possible. Intense interest is felt here in the coming national conventions.

The Democratic leaders favor the nomination of Woodrow Wilson, and all six delegates are instructed for that candidate. They are Jacinto Texidor, Henry Molina, Vincente Fano, J. W. Van Leenhoff, Pedro Guerrero and F. V. Espinoza.

SUNDAY'S NEW-YORK TRIBUNE Mailed anywhere in the United States for $2.59 a year.

Lowell, Mass. May 11.—Several hundred strikers at the Merrimack Manufacturing large depth by the people, and adopted by the people, so that the people themselves, without compulsion, could, as is set forth in the people was set forth in the people will and people, and adopted by the people, so that the people themselves, without compulsion, could, as is set forth in the people was set forth in the people will and people be people, and adopted by the people with a people, and adopted by the people with adopted themselves, with a people, the Computation, better ob-people, the contrary, in the people themselves, with adopted themselves, with a people, the Computation, better ob-people, the Computation, better ob-people, the Computation, better ob-people, the Computation of the Computation, better ob-people, the Computation of the Co and when it is violated. If the people are wise enough to make their Constitution they are wise enough to protect it. They treat the Constitution as an organ of government, and it is best interpreted by the

OLONEL HUI UN IRAL

OF MR. TAFT IN OHIO

OF MR. TAFT IN OHIO

He Denies Right of President to Criticise Roosevelt Administration.

He Denies Right of President to Criticise Roosevelt Administration.

He Denies Right of President to Criticise Roosevelt Administration.

ADVOCATES TARIFF BUREAU

Criticise Roosevelt Administration.

ADVOCATES TARIFF BUREAU

Can Win the Nomination Without Buckeye State, He Says, but Wants It to Share Victory.

Canton, Ohio, May It.—The first day of Theodore Roosevelt's campaign in Ohio May It.—The first day of Theodore Roosevelt's campaign in Ohio May It.—The first day of Theodore Roosevelt's campaign in Ohio May It.—The first day of Theodore Roosevelt's campaign in Ohio may the to highly with his first prepared speech in the state. It was a day of crowds and notices and speeches in gulek succession as the colonel was burried through the castern part of the state in an effort to castern part of the state in an e and neise and speeches in quick succession as the colonel was hurried through the castern part of the state in an effort to keen up with his schedule. This called for thirteen speeches, and he made several more than that.

Colonel Roosevelt covered part of the ground which President Taft went over to-day and their paths crossed several times.

The ex-President renewed his attack on his successor and charged that the President had "joined the enemy."

A new point which Colonel Roosevelt dent had "joined the enemy."

A new point which Colonel Roosevelt dent had be resident that to constitutions are courted and accounts, not to overthrow the men who prevent the constitutions."

Left by Mr. Taft.

Left by Mr. Taft.

Velt administration. He took the ground that as a member of the Roosevelt Cabinet Mr. Taft was a part of the administration and as candidate for President be made his campaign with the record of the Roosevelt administration as his platform. In one speech he said:

I wish to make the issue one of principle and not of personal abuse. I see that Mr. Taft was almost of the personal abuse. I see that Mr. Taft yesterday alluded to me as a demagnation as a sengaged in honeyfugling all of you. Four years ago we Progressives bad discovered that I was a flatterer, an egotist and engaged position, they stand as engaged in honeyfugling all of you. Four years ago we Progressives bad they were they were it is Mr. Taft save more warmand as engaged in honeyfugling the people, and yet I stood then the same way we have not changed position, we Progressives we stand experience of the same way we have not changed position, they stand experience of the same way we have not changed position, we Progressives we stand experience of the same way we have not changed position, they stand experience of the same way we have not changed position, we Progressives we stand experience of the same way we have not changed position, we Progressives we stand experience of the same way we have not changed position, we Progressives we stand experience of the same way we have not changed position, we Progressives we stand experience of the same way we have not changed position, we Progressives we stand experience of the same way we have not changed to the same way we have not changed position, we Progressives we stand experience of the same way we have not changed position, we Progressive we stand experience of the same way we have not changed to the same way the feeting of Col. Roosevelt. The President began the day in East three lection of Col. Roosevelt. The President began the day in East three lection of Col. Roosevelt. The President began the day in East three Lackawanna County the Lackawanna County the Lackawanna County the Lackawanna county t order, an egotist and engaged in honeyugling the people, and yet I stood then I forget whether it was yesterday or toay that Mr. Taft made a remark, which do not think was in very good taste, asthe possibility of my having died in the the right; stand with anybody who stands for the right; stand with him while he is the right; stand with him while he is the right; stand with him when he goes tor disappeared.

Would like to know how you stand on the right of women."

You don't want me to commit myself on that question now just for your vote, do you?" replied Mr. Taft, and his interrogatight, and part with him when he goes tor disappeared.

Battalion, Field Artillery. Albany, May 14 .- An innovation in the selection of national guard officers has been said the President. the new commander of the guard, who has applied to Adjutant General Verbeck for Canton. "That is a question that you can- president of the Philadelphia & Reading made by Major General John F. O'Ryas, the detail of a captain of field art liery of the regular army to be commissioned this state to command the 2d Battailon of not, I know the difference between truth Robert W. Archbald, of the Commerce as major in the field artillery of field artillery, lately commanded by Major General O'Ryan. Unofficially it is said that Cartain C'Ryan. Unofficially it is said that Cartain C'Ryan. Unofficially it is said that Captain Upton Burnis, of the 6th Field Arfillery, is available for this detail.

It is understood that an opinion of the and a surplus. the active list of the army, with the approval of the Secretary of War, of a commission in the national guard of a state. At of the guard, but they exercise no command.

CANADIANS GIVE A DINNER

Club Elects Officers and Acts as Host to State Society Members.

The Canadian Club of New York held a dinner last night in the Waldorf-Astoria. entertaining its new officers, elected before the dinner, and members of various state ocieties. In all there were three hundred and fifty present. The speakers were W. C. Barron, pub-Hsher, of Boston; Edmund D. Fisher, Deputy Controller of the City of New York: Frederick E. Farnsworth, president of the Michigan Society; J. F. Atlen, pres ident of the Georgia Society; W. P. Hamilton, editor of "The Wall Street Journal," and Bird S. Coler.

At the annual election the following officers were chosen: President, T. Kennard Abraham Lincoln Colonel Roosevelt quoted Thomson; first vice-president, Robert N. Graves: second vice-president, J. McLean; third vice-president, E. Medley ans stood for the principles advocated by Scovil; secretary, Edwin B. Beacham; assistant secretary, Roland R. Carter, and treasurer, Henry F. Vallantyne.

TCOK LANDS UNLAWFULLY

Court Says the State Engineer Exceeded His Authority. Albany, May 14. - Frederick Skene exreeded his authority as State Engineer in providing for the appropriation of certain lands for the barge canal at Oswego, owned by the Ontario Knitting Company, according to a decision by the Court of Appeals

Lowell, Mass., May 14.—Several bundred strikers at the Merrimack Manufacturing

TAFT ATTACKS TARIFF PLANS OF ROOSEVELT

Declares the Colonel Doesn't Know How to Carry Out Scheme He Favors.

ASKS FOR A SQUARE DEAL

President Tells Home State Voters He Appeals Only for Justice to His Administration.

Youngstown, Ohio, May 14.-President Taft, in a speech here to-night, made his first attack of the campaign on the tariff revision plans of Theodore Roosevelt.

I understand," said the President, "that Mr. Roosevelt this afternoon said he favored a tariff of high wages, so that the profits of it will go through to the weekly en velope and won't stop at the box office. "We're all in favor of high wages an

Ohio man, but I ask justice. And I do not ily confirmed by Mrs. Archbald. She re he said which lay in the renomination and sylvania district. She was admitted t

Saw No Elephant Gun.

of the bosses and made his usual and of striking brunette type. Her voice U. S. Captain to Command 2d reference to Mr. Roosevelt's relations with is of unusual richness, and it is said

"I didn't see Mr. Roosevelt get out his of the productions in which she has apdephant gun and get after any bosses," peared.

not discuss any more than you can dis- Railroad, to-day was subprensed by the cuss whether you are good looking or House Judiciary Committee as a witness in not But whether I am puzzle-witted or the investigation of charges against Judga Abraham Lincoln in any respect. And I culm dump property negotiated by John

"I hope that when you go back home you delphia & Reading Coal Company. Jones of a bureau to inquire into the effect of therizes the acceptance by an officer on will go over the facts that I have stated testified that out of his commission on this and then examine so far as you may other sources of information, listen to Mr. Roose- present of $250 because he had accomvelt's speeches, and see how he specifies, how many indictments he draws are on tailed to this state as instructor inspectors facts and how many are more assertion among other witnesses summoned to appear that have no foundation in fact and no spe-> several hundred school children. "When you grow up will you become good citizens, will you stand for the United States and for the Stars and Stripes?" asked the str." said the children in chorus.

"And when you hear anytody a, will you think he does not know e is doing? Will you?" "Yes, sir," said the chorus again. Doesn't Change on Reciprocity.

Once or twice the President took up reciprocity and told the farmers that he was SENTRY IN ROCKING CHAIR still of the opinion it would have been a good thing for them and the country. "I am sorry if the farmers disagree with me," he said. "It is a dead issue and is not here politically. But I am not going to take back my view, though it lead them to side with the man who changes his view to get their votes and against a man who is Rain interfered with the President's speeches in Massillon, Barberton and Akron, but by the time he reached Kent the sun was out, and his talks there and in Ravenna, Girard, Niles and Warren by ore he arrived in Youngstown, were made vithout irconvenience. All day the crowds were big enough to please the President line, and although in danger of being and the demonstrations and appause fre-quent.

ARCHBALD'S DAUGHTER ACTRESS IN STOCK CO.

Judge's Wife Confirms Report Mrs. Silvey Has Been on Stage Two Years.

FIRST PLAYED IN 'BLUE BIRD'

Graduated from Bryn Mawr, Be. came a Lawyer, and Took Up Stage Career After Her Marriage.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Scranton, Penn., May 14.-After being kept secret for two years, the fact that Mrs. William W. Silvey, the only daughter of Judge Robert W. Archbald, of the Commerce Court, is on the stage, became known here to-night. The statement came from a close friend of the judge have resided in New York, it is understood, and the young matron seized at opportunity to gratify her ambition by accepting a part in "The Blue Bird" during its New York production. She has since appeared in other plays. Mrs. Silvey is about thirty years old.

that she has had singing parts in some also know the difference between a deficit Henry Jones through W. J. Richards, vicepresident and superintendent of the Philadated him by negotiating $500 on a note. Richards also has been subprenaed. cifications. Weigh it all, and then if you believe that you ought to support me there is no reason why you should not support the a son of Ohio."

At Massillon Mr. Taft made a speech to several hundred school children. "When Conn. vice-president of the Laurel Electric Line, and H. C. Reynolds, counsel for W.

transaction he made Judge Archibald a

P. Boland, originator of the charges against the jurist. The committee took a recess to-day owing to the consideration in the House of the anti-injunction bill. Beginning to-morrow it is planned to hold night sessions of the committee to hasten the inquiry.

Woman Balks Telephone Pole Setters in All-Day Siege.

By Telegraph to The Trib Greenwich, Conn., May 14 .- Mrs. Seth Jimmerson fought and won a battle today with the New York Telephone Comneighbor. The setti setting of the pole was accomplished by night just over her property line, and, although in danger of being

If you enjoy a good dinner well served, picturesque scenery by searchlight, a pleasant night's repose-

you will go

